Our Philosophy

Feeding you and your family should be taken seriously. As lovers of Italian food, we make much of our food from scratch and take pride in spending time creating in the kitchen. In turn our food philosophy is centered around three core tenants: 1. Feed you like you're at home. 2. Buy the best possible ingredients 3. Prepare satisfying, Italian inspired food. We believe that the food culture in America is changing for the better but, ultimately, we are guided by the tenants of Italian home cooking.
